Reconciliation

Saturday 3:00 - 3:45pm

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Whoever has ears ought to hear.” Jesus explains the parable of the Sower, again stating the importance of hearing, of listening. The Lord speaks to us in Isaiah: “Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, ... so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.” Jesus says that “the one who hears the word and understands it” is rich soil, receiving the seed that then “bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.”

Listening is crucial. How many times people have said to me, “Father, I could not hear you. I missed what you said. Can you repeat that?” It is hard to stay engaged, to pay attention, to not get distracted. Someone may cough and drown out several words that give meaning to the message. A baby cries and some will say in their hearts, “Please repeat what you just said. I have missed the point. This is important.”

That’s a good listener, the one who is captivated and is receiving and is understanding and then, BOOM, is interrupted and wants the message completed. A good listener will seek out those words he missed because it will be efficacious for his life. The Greek words we use, like catechism, emphasize an important teaching that should go through the ears and to the heart, where it will “resound” or “echo” into the depths of our being. “Formed by divine teaching”, we hear before praying the “Our Father” at Mass. The root word for catechism is katekeo or katecheo in Greek (κατηχεω), which means “resound”, as well as “to teach orally”, “to instruct”. Oral teaching means one must listen well. When listening attentively, news or new information brings an enlightenment, as we often use the expression that “a light bulb has just gone on” when we understand.

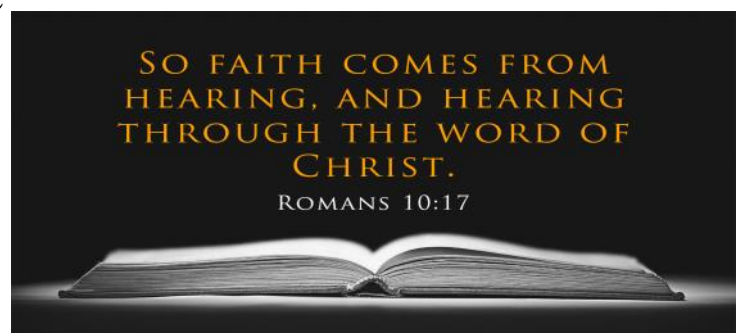

This is why faith comes from listening, as St. Paul mentions (see Romans 10:17). Mary is the greatest example of listening and how it applies to our faith. The word of God was delivered to Mary by an angel, a “messenger” of God. It was no ordinary word but a word that would produce within her the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ! Mary’s dialogue with the angel Gabriel concludes with her words that will change the course of history: “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.” The fruit of her womb, Jesus, is born through a word. Jesus is born in us through a word, explained through another Greek word, kerygma (κήρυγμα), which means proclamation or preaching.

The Liturgy of the Word is the first part of the Mass, in which the Word of God is proclaimed, to resound within us and bring life within us, just as Mary received a new life within her. This is the action of the Holy Spirit and one of the gifts of the Spirit is understanding. From the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, twelve fruits are produced. We cannot claim these gifts and fruits as our own but know, as Mary did, that everything comes from God. God spoke and creation came about. After the Fall of Adam and Eve, God did not stop speaking or creating but our heavenly Father continues to speak to us in the Church every time the Word is proclaimed. We are continually being formed through proclamation of the Word and worthily reception of the Eucharist because “creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God.”

Are we listening? Did we hear that?

God Love You!!!

Fr. Jim Starasovich

Pre-Cana

What is it?

"On the threshold of his public life Jesus performs his first sign—at his mother's request—during a wedding feast.

(John 2:1-11) The Church attaches great importance to Jesus' presence at the wedding at Cana. She sees in it the confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that thenceforth marriage will be an efficacious sign of Christ's presence." (CCC1613)

Pre-Cana is an opportunity for engaged couples to prepare for the Sacrament of Matrimony. They will learn about the beauty of Marriage as a sacrament and about how they can be an effective sign of Christ's presence to each other, to their future children and to those around them.

Pre-Cana is a full day event that takes place on a Saturday through the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. For more information and for registration, please visit the Office of Life, Marriage & Family's website:

welcome if it is entirely new to you.

St. Ignatius of Loyola (founder of the Jesuit

Spiritual Exercises, and it focuses on reading and entering in Scripture imagina-

through your mind and imagination if you dedicate it to prayer. Father Johnathan
