Reconciliation

Saturday 3:00 - 3:45pm

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Matthew 11:28

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is Wednesday, July 5 as I write, and two optional memorials are listed on the liturgical calendar for this day. One is for St. Elizabeth of Portugal, someone whom we can turn to for her intercessory prayers, especially for reconciliation within families. The other memorial is for St. Anthony Zaccaria, founder of the Society of Clerics of Saint Paul, known also as the Barnabites. It caught my attention his words found in the Liturgy of the Hours for his memorial and how fitting they are for all Christians. It is “from a sermon to fellow members of his society”. I cannot help but reflect on the need for ongoing formation in the faith after reading this sermon. He is speaking to members of his society, who are clergy, and I agree that we clergy need to hear these words. Yet, they are appropriate for laity as well, since we are continually being challenged by today’s ideologies. We often seem at a loss for words and would like to avoid the issues and discussions. There really is no easy way out. What does it mean to be Christian today? This is the wisdom of the saints, and St Anthony Zaccaria in particular:

We are fools for Christ’s sake (1 Cor 4:10): our holy guide and most revered patron [St. Paul] was speaking about himself and the rest of the apostles, and about the other people who profess the Christian and apostolic way of life. But there is no reason, dear brothers, that we should be surprised or afraid: for the disciple is not superior to his teacher; nor the slave to his master (Mt 10:24). We should love and feel compassion for those who oppose us, rather than abhor and despise them, since they harm themselves and do us good, and adorn us with crowns of everlasting glory while they incite God’s anger against themselves. And even more than this, we should pray for them and not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil by goodness. We should heap good works like red-hot coals of burning love upon their heads (cf. Rom 12:20-21), as our Apostle urges us to do, so that when they become aware of our tolerance and gentleness, they may undergo a change of heart and be prompted to turn in love to God.

We need to stay close to Jesus or else we find ourselves being pulled by the ways of the world, by the latest fads and trends, by the latest ideologies. That’s why Jesus’ words are proclaimed today: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” We feel labored looking for answers and burdened by those who await our answers. Yes, we appear to be ‘fools for Christ’ but we remember the end is salvation, not just for us but for others too. The truth moves us, and we should become more immersed in the Sacred Word – the Truth – so that we will always have an answer. And that answer is Christ! Christ alive, Christ resurrected daily, within our hearts!

God Love You!!!

Fr. Jim Starasovich

If interested, please contact the office at 507-451-4845 or parishoffice@stjosephowatonna.org.

Also, a big thank you to our current bulletin advertisers! With your help, we are able to keep our bulletin current and available to all!

Pre-Cana

What is it?

"On the threshold of his public life Jesus performs his first sign—at his mother's request—during a wedding feast.

(John 2:1-11) The Church attaches great importance to Jesus' presence at the wedding at Cana. She sees in it the confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that thenceforth marriage will be an efficacious sign of Christ's presence." (CCC1613)

Pre-Cana is an opportunity for engaged couples to prepare for the Sacrament of Matrimony. They will learn about the beauty of Marriage as a sacrament and about how they can be an effective sign of Christ's presence to each other, to their future children and to those around them.

Pre-Cana is a full day event that takes place on a Saturday through the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. For more information and for registration, please visit the Office of Life, Marriage & Family's website:

Adoration Chapel
St. Joseph Parish
Noon to 1pm

Joining in God's Story
September 9-10, 2023

Shalom Hill Farm
Retreat Center
Rural Windom

All adults are welcome to this prayer retreat for renewing and deepening our Christian walk. The focus of this retreat is learning and practicing Ignatian contemplation - and if you know what this is and pray this way all the time, you are welcome. But you are also welcome if it is entirely new to you. St. Ignatius of Loyola (founder of the Jesuit order) offered this form of prayer in his Spiritual Exercises, and it focuses on reading and entering in Scripture imaginatively. The Lord does communicate through your mind and imagination if you dedicate it to prayer. Father Johnathan Fasnacht and Dr. Susan Windley-Daoust will be co-leading this retreat. We will teach how to do this, give a lot of time for practice, and offer Mass on Sunday. This is a semi-silent retreat.

Start: Saturday Sept. 9 at 10am
(come to settle in at 9am)

End: Sunday, Sept 10 at 2:30pm

Meals included (lunch, supper, brunch, snack)
