Confession

Saturday 3:00 - 3:45pm

“The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, Amen I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.”

John 12: 23-24

Tuesday, March 19, is the Solemnity of St. Joseph. According to St. Bernadine of Siena, “St. Joseph exceeds in grace and blessing all of the patriarchs, prophets, St. John the Baptist, Saints Peter and Paul, the Apostles, holy martyrs, and doctors of the Church. Following Our Blessed Mother, St. Joseph is the greatest saint in heaven.” Pope John Paul II called St. Joseph The Guardian of the Redeemer, recalling “into whose custody God entrusted His most precious treasures.” St. Joseph is the patron saint of many things, including: the Universal Church, fathers, families, workers, seminarians, and a happy death; in the Litany of St. Joseph, he is invoked as “the terror of demons.” Given the importance of St. Joseph in the life of the Church, Mass at Sacred Heart Parish will begin at 7:00 a.m. on Tuesday, March 19. Furthermore, because the Solemnity of St. Joseph is the patronal feast of St. Joseph Parish, there will be a special Mass at St. Joseph Parish at 6:30 p.m. I invite everyone to make a special effort to attend one of these Mass and to pray for St. Joseph’s powerful intercession.

Many of you might remember the term “Easter Duty.” A Catholic’s “Easter Duty” referred to the obligation to go to confession and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. This obligation is still in effect! “Catholics are obliged to receive Holy Communion during the Easter season.” (Code of Canon Law, no. 920) “The Faithful are obliged to confess grave sins at least once a year. It is recommended that venial sins also be confessed.” (Code of Canon Law, no. 988-989) Therefore, I encourage everyone to make a good confession before receiving Holy Communion on Easter Sunday. This Thursday, March 21, at 6:30 p.m., St. Joseph Parish will host a Communal Penance Service. Several priests will be present; this is the only time that other priests will be hearing confessions at our parishes. In addition to our regular, daily confession times, there will be other opportunities to receive the graces of the Sacrament of Penance before Easter:

This is the last week that Stations of the Cross will be prayed publicly in our parishes. Everyone is encouraged to participate in these many opportunities to meditate on the suffering and death of Our Lord. According to Pope Benedict XIV, “The Way of the Cross is one of the best means for converting sinners, stirring up fervor in the hearts of the lukewarm, and leading virtuous souls on to perfection.” (Father John Hardon’s Catholic Prayer Book, 56) “A plenary indulgence is granted the Christian faithful who devoutly make the Stations of the Cross under the usual conditions of confession, communion, and a prayer for the Pope’s intentions.” (Handbook of Indulgences, #63)

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Tuesday	March 19	9:15 a.m.	Sacred Heart	led by St. Mary’s School students

Friday	March 22	5:15 p.m.	Sacred Heart	followed by Benediction
Friday	March 22	6:30 p.m.	Sacred Heart	Spanish
Friday	March 22	7:00 p.m.	St. Joseph
Saturday	March 23	7:00 p.m.	Christ the King	“Living Stations”

Please note that Palm Sunday Mass will begin at 5:45 p.m. at Christ the King Parish on Saturday, 23 March.

Many people have asked why are the crosses and statues covered in the church. According to the rubrics of the Roman Missal, crosses and statues are covered during the last two weeks of Lent until the beginning of the Easter Vigil. In his book, A Handbook on the Liturgy, Rudolf Peil writes: “On the Fifth Sunday of Lent the crosses in the church are covered with veils. The historical reason for this practice is that in early Christian times these crosses were richly decorated with jewels and precious stones; these were veiled because they were not in harmony with the spirit of the season.” Father P. Henry gives a more scriptural interpretation of this custom in his book, The Liturgical Year. “Jesus does not appear openly among the people as he did formerly; He remains in hiding: ‘Jesus hid Himself’ John 8:59. Hence, the Fifth Sunday of Lent was called Repus Sunday meaning ‘Hidden Sunday.’ Our Lord was compelled to remain hidden; His Divinity was hidden; His images are hidden.” The great liturgist Dom Prosper Guéranger, O.S.B., gives this reason: “In order to excite the faithful to a livelier sense of penance, they are deprived of the consolation which the sight of these holy images bring to the soul.” In other words, we “fast” from the sight of these holy images during the last two weeks of Lent.

Please prayerfully consider what financial gift you can sacrifice to support Bishop Barron’s 2024 Annual Catholic Ministries Appeal. Every registered parishioner should have received in the mail a brochure, a pledge card, and a return envelope. If you have not received a personal pledge card, extra envelopes and brochures are available at the entrances of the Church. Please return your gift before Easter. You can mail your contribution directly to the diocese, or put your envelope in the collection basket during any weekend Mass. The Annual Catholic Ministries Appeal supports Bishop Barron’s Catholic ministries throughout our diocese including: Catholic Schools; Marriage and Family Life; Faith Formation (including RCIA and our two Newman Centers); Vocations and Seminarians; Youth Ministry; Hispanic Ministry; Lay Formation; and Communications (including the Courier and the televised Sunday Mass). The Bishop has set a goal of $50,880 for St. Joseph Parish, and a goal of $10,631 for Christ the King Parish. If these amounts are not raised by the end of the 2024 calendar year, the Bishop requires that the remaining amount is paid in full by the general operating budget of our parishes. If a parish exceeds its goal, the Bishop has agreed to return to the parish 100% of any amount over the goal.

Service & Leadership - Students secure a service experience that they can participate in on-site at SMS helping a particular teacher or staff member, or it can be off-site in the community for the whole semester.

Art I - Students work with acrylic paint, colored pencils, watercolor paints, chalk pastels and have the opportunity to express themselves through art by creating one-of-kind pieces.
